

Can You Hear Me Calling (Overland/Overland)

Saw you again today
We passed on the street
Why do I feel this way
Each time that we meet
I'm going crazy
Going out of my mind

It's just my masquerade
Another game I play
Imagination's got me living a lie

Whoa, whoa, can you hear me calling
Just a lonely a voice crying out to you
Whoa, whoa, can you hear me calling
A desperate heart reaching out for you
Hear me callin'

My friends are talkin'
All saying the same
Loving a stranger
Is a dangerous game
Infatuation, ain't easy to hide

I need to see this through
Just a chance to talk to you
Convince myself that I'm not wasting my time

Whoa, whoa, can you hear me calling
Just a lonely a voice crying out to you
Whoa, whoa, can you hear me calling
A desperate heart reaching out for you

This strange obsession's
Like a thorn in my side
Watching and waiting
And just biding my time

Whoa, whoa, can you hear me calling
Just a lonely a voice crying out to you
Whoa, whoa, can you hear me calling
A desperate heart reaching out for you
Whoa, whoa, can you hear me calling
Can you hear me
Whoa, whoa, can you hear me calling
Calling out to you
Whoa, whoa, can you hear me calling
Just a lonely a voice crying out to you
Whoa, whoa, can you hear me calling
Reaching out for you
Can you hear me
Can you hear me calling
Hear me calling
Calling out tonight
