

Better Late Than Never (Overland/Goldsworthy/Jupp/Davis/Kirkpatrick)

Well life is strange
You wake one day
And you realise
There must be something more
Well love's a word I'd kinda heard
But I never thought
That it would knock on my door

Well I know
It's been a long time coming
But baby here I stand
Now I'm here
I'm going to hit the road running
'Cos I'm a different man

Chorus

Better late than never
In matters of the heart
Let's get this motor running
Gotta take it from the start
The best things in life
Don't come knocking at your door
Better late than never than never at all
Better late than never than never Never at all

Well I was lazy
Spending my days
Just drifting around
In my own sweet world
But then you came
And everything changed
Now no looking back
Since I found you girl

They were telling me
What I've been missing
But now I understand
Love was calling
Now I'm glad I listened
'Cos I'm a different man

Chorus

All these years
Well I never knew that feeling
Well I took my time
And now I've crossed that line

Chorus
