

The Girl's Gone Bad (Goldsworthy/Jupp/Overland/Barnett)

I was minding my own business on a lazy afternoon
Watching the world go by
When a vision from the past came from out of nowhere
Shook me up, took me by surprise

She was dressed to kill, she knew I was sold
I had to pull myself together, pick myself up off the floor
Just a small town girl when she went away
Now she's back in town
I've got to say

The girl's gone bad, she's breaking all the rules
But I know it turns her on
The girl's gone bad, there's nothing I can do
When I woke up this morning
She was long, long, long, long gone

Hey my baby's gone
Oh yeah

She must have slipped out of the back door
In the early morning light
How did I ever let that woman steal away
I should have seen it coming, I must have been blind
'Cos she said she'd get me back one day

She made promises that she couldn't keep
And laid it out on the table, she left a note for me
Just a small town girl when she went away
Now she's all grown up
I've got to say

The girl's gone bad, she's breaking all the rules
But I know it turns her on
The girl's gone bad, there's nothing I can do
When I woke up this morning
She was long, long gone

Get on up
I said get on up

The girl's gone bad, she's breaking all the rules
But I know it turns her on
The girl's gone bad, there's nothing I can do
When I woke up this morning
She was long, long, long,
Long, long gone
The girl's gone bad, she's breaking all the rules
But I know it turns her on
The girl's gone bad, there's nothing I can do
When I woke up this morning
She was long, long, long, long gone

My baby's gone
